21:00 The Big Gay Song Book @ Ballroom Hydro Hotel

The Big Gay Songbook, is an up-lifting old school pub sing-a-long given a heart warming and joyous kick up the proverbial back side. Super talented pianist and singer Rudi Douglas leads the singing whilst Jonny Woo hosts and contributes witty interjections throughout. The Big Gay Songbook, celebrates the amazing music from several decades of the gay scene and beyond, so with hits from artists such as Tina Turner, Madonna, Whitney and Cher, it's a catalogue which everyone knows.

'These are the songs that made us gay' cries Woo, 'Or just seem a bit gayer when we sing them' adds Rudi. So expect covers from Girls Aloud and Kylie, but also enjoy versions of songs by artists such as Lauren Hill, Joni Mitchell and Stevie Wonder or unexpected dance hits given a piano make-over. The Big Gay Songbook covers songs from the 60's through to the current charts so its a chance to reminisce as well as to scream along to your new fave hit.

The Big Gay Songbook packs new super cool performance pub The Glory each Sunday with regulars referring to it as 'church'. This night comes from a place of love for the music we grew up to and continue to dance too. It's a fun inclusive night where everyone is invited gay, straight or just plain greedy

20:00 Gar Cox @ Ballroom The Hydro Hotel

Carlow man Gar Cox has charmed audiences all over Ireland and Europe with his songs. Sometimes funny, sometimes sad, always warm and inclusive, Gar's songs come from the folkie side of life, with a little disco and a twisted tail-feather shaken in. Last spring, he released his E.P. "Support Your Local Bookshop". Critics loved it ("Beguiling [...] Top-notch tunes" – Hot Press; "Brilliantly mixes humour, pathos and reflections of queer life" – GCN), and Gar took it on the road for a very special tour of Ireland's independent bookshops, bringing the songs to the people and places they were inspired by.
